

Counselling centers for the recognition of foreign professional qualifications

The IQ Network Baden-Württemberg has been providing information about recognition of foreign professional qualifications since 2011. The range of counselling services has been expanded continuously in cooperation with the state of Baden-Württemberg and the League of Non-Statutory Welfare.

The counselling centers addresses persons with foreign professional qualifications as well as labour market institutions and migrant organisations. The counselling centers are available in all four administrative regions of the state of Baden-Württemberg.

Our services for migrants and institutions

- We offer our clients advice on the recognition process: we explain to them the recognition procedure and assist them with their search for the adequate competent authority for the recognition procedure.
- We offer free of charge consultation by phone, email or in person. However face-to-face appointments should be reserved in advance whether by phone or email.
- We require for our counselling service the following documents, (if available) degrees and diplomas (preferably translated in German), curriculum vitae, work experience certificates as well as reply letters from the competent authority.
- We offer professional training to staff members of statutory offices and institutions involved in the recognition of foreign degrees/credentials.
